AIR FORCE EXPLORERS

LT COL THOMAS H. BLOCK

Lt Colonel Thomas H. Block is Vice Commander, Air Force Explorers, Phoenix, Arizona, and serves in a dual role in the U.S. Military Explorers. The Group is the organization that oversees Military and Air Force Explorer units throughout the U.S. that prepares young adults as U.S. Air Force & Military Officers and Enlisted members. Specialty training includes including Airmanship, Special Tactics, and Air Intelligence as well as other training fields for young adults. The organization started with the establishment of the 396th Aircrew Training Squadron, Phoenix, Arizona in March of 1999.

He enlisted in the United States Air Force in 1967 as an Inventory Management Specialist at Patrick AFB, FL, had volunteered for duty in Southeast Asia during the Vietnam War, and was assigned to Udorn RTAFB, Thailand, and then later to Grand Forks AFB, ND. In 1970, he was assigned to Charleston AFB, SC as a C-141A Aircraft Loadmaster. In 1973 he was reassigned to Peterson AFB, CO, where he served as a HQ Air Defense Command FTS / Loadmaster Instructor and Flight Examiner on C-118, C-131 and T-29 Aircraft. He was part of the Initial cadre that established Peterson AFB's first operational Air Freight / USAF Log Air Station (which was awarded "Air Force's LOGAIR Air Force Station of the Year for two consecutive years), and served as its Training NCO until his Honorable Discharge in 1975.

In 1981 he re-enlisted in US Air Force Reserves at McChord AFB, WA. He completed C-141B Loadmaster Training at Altus AFB, OK and received recognition as a Distinguished Graduate, was upgraded to Aircraft Loadmaster in five missions after being out the aircraft over eight years. He was reassigned to Norton AFB, CA in 1988 and was mobilized and activated for Desert Shield / Desert Storm and was the Wing's initial cadre of Aircrew during both operations. He was also part of the Wing's review team of its IT Systems in preparing for a UEI. In 1992, the Wing transferred its operation to March AFB, CA, and he was part of the Aircrew and 16-Ship C-141B formation that landed at March AFB all within minutes. As the Wing transferred into the 1st and only AFRC unit equipped organization, the 452nd AMW, he became one of the Wing's only qualified Minuteman III qualified Loadmaster. He graduated from the Air Force Reserve Leadership Development course and was elected its Class Leader. He became the NCOIC of Loadmaster Training: Logistics, and planned over 30 additional DOD Military Training Missions, including conducting several aircraft operational load training & test missions for Department of Energy's Nuclear Emergency Search Team (NEST) at Los Alamos National Laboratory. He continued his aircraft and loadmaster proficiency by his qualification in the C-141C. He was a Command level Loadmaster Examiner and has flown more than 5,600 hours in the C-118A, VC-118A, VT-29C/D, C-131D/E, C-141A/B/C Aircraft. He was assigned to the U.S. Air Force Retired in 1999 with more than 25 years of Service in both the US Air Force and US Air Force Reserve, and has 42 Combat or Combat Support Missions during the Vietnam War, Cold War and Desert Shield/Desert Storm Operations.

He entered into service with the Air Force Explorers, 396th Aircrew Training Sq. in 2001, completed Officer Candidate School as an Advisor and was commissioned directly to 1st Lieutenant. He served as its Operations Officer, and Training Officer. In 2010 he was assigned to the 405th Aircrew Training Group as its Plans & Programs Officer. He continues his added responsibilities as Webmaster for both Air Force Explorers and U.S. Military Explorers websites. In 2014 he was assigned as the Air Force Explorers Vice Commander. In 2019 he was assigned in a dual role position as the U.S. Military Explorers Chief of Staff.
